Eligibility to take the General Bar Exam depends upon the completion of the educational requirements as set forth in Title 4, Division 1 of the Rules of the State Bar of California (Admissions Rules). You will be entitled to either one year or up to two years of law study credit depending on when you passed the exam and when you first qualified to take it. Please refer to the Admissions Rules as to the amount of law study credit granted toward eventually qualifying to take the General Bar Exam and how much more must be completed.

Results Letters: Applicants' result letters are posted to the Applicant Portal for four weeks (until January 3, 2025). Please save or print a copy for your records before they are removed.

Multiple-Choice Answers: You may inspect the exam, in a proctored situation, at the Office of Admissions - San Francisco or Los Angeles.
